New Dream Center

We are not simply planting seeds for a better life; we are planting seeds for a life that can impact others for Christ.

Seeds of Hope: Bopha's Story

Dear Friends,

Bopha and her sister, Seyha, first came to our attention because their parents had abandoned them to find work in other areas of Cambodia. The girls were left in a very difficult situation, and because of their circumstances, they did not have the opportunity to attend school. Their future seemed uncertain. But God had not forgotten them.

Through the New Dream Center, Bopha and Seyha were given an opportunity to begin again. They were given a place where they could live, receive an education, grow, and discover that their lives had value and purpose.

Years ago, they entered the Dream Center as children who had very little opportunity. Today, we are celebrating something wonderful. Bopha has graduated from high school!

Praise and Prayer

- ❖ We are excited about our upcoming Young Adult Conference on September 23–24. Please pray that God will use this gathering to speak to a generation of young Cambodian believers. Pray that young adults will encounter God, grow deeper in their faith, discover His purpose for their lives, and be challenged to become leaders and witnesses in their communities.
- ❖ Please pray for continued sponsorship for the children at the New Dream Center. Many of these children come from impoverished families and remote areas where educational opportunities are limited. Sponsorship helps provide the practical care they need while giving them the opportunity to attend school, develop their abilities, and pursue their dreams.

From Dream to Becoming

And now Bopha is dreaming again. She is planning to continue her education by going to college.

But perhaps the greatest part of Bopha and Seyha's story is not what they have accomplished academically. It is what God has done in their hearts. Bopha and Seyha have come to love God, and they have a desire to share Him with others.

The girls have discovered that their lives are not simply about escaping poverty or building a better future for themselves. God has given them a purpose that reaches beyond their own lives.

They want other people to know the God who has loved them and given them hope.
